

WHAT PATH WILL YOU TAKE

Published on Sep 16, 2013

What does it mean to be a Scout?

It's about overcoming obstacles of all shapes and sizes, reaching your goals and celebrating your achievements, no matter how small. It's also about having fun; get involved and join the adventure.

Thanks to everyone involved in the making of this film, including:

9th Tower Hamlets

4th Poplar

The Hatters ESU

13th Southall

1st Bishops Stortford and Hockerill

HQ Dartry

Loughborough Endowed Schools

Reindeer Explorer Scout Unit

Loughten

1st Apsley Scout Group (Hemel Hempstead) Ayers Explorer Scout Unit 1st Clayton-le-Moors (All Saints) Scout Group

K2 Explorer Scout Unit

Mungo Park ESU

Instructors and The Scout Association staff, Rebecca, Suzie, Laura, Asa and Kerrie, Kevin, Leona, Ralph, Chris and Lee with the help and support of www.3angrymen.com.

Production credits:

Concept - 3angrymen and TSA creative team

Director - Guy Saville

Editor - Siena Bevan

Director of Photography - Duncan Telford

Camera Assistant - Nuria Perez

Grade - The Look

Music - West One Music Group

Narrator - Rob Richards

Equipment Hire - S + O Media

Filmed at Gilwell Park Scout Activity Centre, Chingford, London; Great Tower Scout Activity Centre, Cumbria; Roland Philipps Scout Centre, Aldgate, London.

The Path

The Path is not always clear,

It's not always easy.

There will be obstacles,

You will walk in the shadows as well as the light.

Achievement isn't gifted to you,

It's not something in your DNA.

You earn it through dedication and determination,

Through your own endurance and will to succeed.

Piece by piece, step by step,

No challenge is too great.

How far can you see?

How far can you go? Stand up, Step forward.

Seek out your ambition and pursue it without fear.

You are not alone, You will meet others along the way,

Together you will not falter.

Look to your future,

Build upon your past,

From deepest river to mountain top,

You determine your Path.

Inspired by the words of Baden-Powell, written by Guy, James, Thom, Chris and Lee.